RUMOR DENIED

Shooting at Baltimore was held to have been accidental and not suicidal.
Baltimore, August 22.—(C) Hagedtine Basahor, prominent in Baltimore society and club circles, died at his country home near Cambridge, Md., today from the effects of gunshot wounds received last Wednesday night.

Mrs. Basahor, who was in constant attendance at her husband's bedside, collapsed under the shock and later was carried to her recovery. She is the divorced wife of Captain Isaac E. Basahor and the mother of Mrs. Alfred G. Vandenberg.
Reports that Basahor shot himself with suicidal intent were denied by his physician and members of the Basahor household. Mrs. Basahor made a statement through the doctor in which she declared that all reports of strange relations between her husband and herself were untrue. She had been shooting quinine for him and accidentally shot herself after he returned to the house to put the drug away.
Mrs. Basahor was visiting friends about eight miles from the house when the shooting occurred.
